

Zurich, June 2009 GD-RKB 035/2009

Dear Sir / Madam,

Herewith we would like to inform you that Gazprombank (OJSC), Moscow has become our new parent bank as of 4 June 2009 (after 17 years of fruitful co-operation with Vneshtorgbank).

Gazprombank has been successfully operating in the banking market since 1990. Founded by the world's largest gas producer and exporter OAO Gazprom to provide banking services for gas industry enterprises, Gazprombank has become one of the leaders in the banking sector, with its key performance indicators ranking Gazprombank among the top three Russian banks.

Gazprombank offers a wide range of corporate, private and investment banking services for about 43,000 corporate and more than 2 million private clients.

Gazprombank invests into and gives loans to the leaders of major sectors of the economy – oil and gas, petrochemical industry, metallurgy, machine building, nuclear industry, electric power industry, real estate construction, transport, telecommunications and trade.

Gazprombank actively develops investment banking products. It is occupying leading positions in transactions on the capital markets (bonds underwriting, financing for clients etc), corporate finance advisory, project finance and asset management.

At present Gazprombank operates 7 subsidiary and affiliated banks in Russia, Belarus and Armenia, representative offices in China, Mongolia and India, and also 40 own branches across Russia.

The bank's steady development and high reliability have been rewarded with high ratings by international rating agencies: Moody's Investors Service and Standard & Poor's. The Banker Magazine twice awarded Gazprombank the title of "The Bank of the Year in Russia" (in 2001 and 2005).
